

Welcome to our family.

What is a family?

Why is family important?

What do we gain from family?

Why do you think we've organised Rickleton families?

How should we treat family?

BE KIND

As well as kindness, what other 'values' did the girl show?

What do we mean by values?

Can you name any famous people that show positive values?

Who can we take inspiration from?

People become known for the values they show, whether positive or negative.

Which values do you think your new 'family' group should be know for?

Choose a famous person that represents the most important values to this 'family'.

Their surname will become your family name!

Which values are most important?

Don't forget to record your family name choice!

Who should be our representatives this year?

Choose a boy and girl from Y6 to be our family leaders.

What things do you think they might need to do as leader?

How can we choose in a fair and democratic way?

How do we show others what is important to our family?

Design a family
'Coat of arms'.

What do you think the Powers family wanted to show about their family?

What are their values?

Design a family 'Coat of arms'

Try to include your family colour, name and values!
